

RENTOKIL INITIAL SINGAPORE PTE LTD
PESTERMINATOR PTE LTD

QSHE POLICY

Rentokil Initial (Singapore) Pte Ltd/ Pesterminator Pte Ltd will harness the heads, hearts and spirits of our highly trained experts, to become acknowledged as a customer service champion, universally recognised for performance excellence by doing it all at Pace in the right way. Our Business Management ensures that adequate arrangements and resources are available to maintain and improve our QSHE performance.

We are committed to promote sound Quality, Safety, Health and Environmental practices by:

- Prevent injury and ill-health of all our employees, customers and the public, and contributes to the business performance;
- Protecting the environment and prevent pollution in our daily activities by appropriate handling, storage and application of chemicals and mitigating of any nuisance associated with our services;
- Complying with applicable legislation as well as other requirements;
- Striving for continual improvement in the setting and periodic review of our quality, environmental, health and safety objectives;
- Creating an awareness and communicate amongst our employees on their roles and responsibilities in complying with the QSHE policy, relevant procedures, and good practices for achieving QSHE performance;
- Appropriate liaison with our customers and suppliers on being more environmentally friendly in our services;
- Conserving energy in the appropriate management of our facilities that should include appropriate level of maintenance;
- Making available our QSHE policy to the public to promote awareness on protecting the QSHE and preventing pollution;
- Providing appropriate financial and physical resources for eliminate / reduce and control of hazards.
- Manage and implement security measures in response to terror threats

Paul Hellyer

Managing Director

February 2020